1	A. Yes.
2	Q. And one of the elements that is analyzed
3	to determine whether or not an applicant has a
4	potential for success is its access to capital
5	sufficient to maintain its business operations,
6	right?
7	A. Yes.
8	Q. Okay. So the business opportunity
9	specialist in Philadelphia or San Francisco
10	reviews it in the first instance; is that right?
11	A. Yes.
12	Q. Okay. And where does the Office of
13	Certification and Eligibility come in?
14	A. The Philadelphia and San Francisco units
15	are under that office, so they are part of the
16	Office of Certification and Eligibility.
17	Q. So the Business Opportunity Specialist
18	that is reviewing the application is part of that
19	office; is that right?
20	A. Yes.
21	Q. Okay. All right.
22	The initial application is supposed to
23	be reviewed in 90 days; is that right?
24	A. Ninety days after the complete application is filed.

25

1 Okay. Ninety days after it's completed. So if the business opportunity specialist 2 concludes that there's something missing, it 3 could ask for further information and the clock 5 doesn't run until the complete application is in; is that right? 6 7 Α. That's correct. Yes. All right. And is the time, the 90 8 Q. days, the same regardless of whether an applicant 9 is owned by a member of a presumptive group or 10 someone else? 11 It is across the board for all 12 Α. 13 applications, whether it's individually owned, whether it's entity owned, whether it's presumed 14 15 or not. 16 Ο. Okay. Okay. 17 In reviewing the application, the 18 Business Opportunity Specialist looks at the personal financial condition of the owner of an 19 20 individually owned applicant, right? Yes. 2.1 Α. 22 Q. Okay. We look at that status for both those 23 Α. who own and those who are in control for both 24 individuals.
